DREDICATED TO WH. CURTIS NOTES, ESQ.
One next 12mo. $1.25.

This Romance, for such it claims to be, it founded on the well-known historical fact that MARGARET MOSCRISEVE, toe het olic, a member of Gen. Patnam's family, in Juns, 1176, where she had been received at her father's earnest request, was detected in conveying secret information to Gov. Tryon, then on board the 1 uchess of Gordon, lying off Staten Island.

A strong and mutual attachment sprang up between herself and Major Aaron bour, the gallant and accomplished aid of Gen. Poman, and also an immate of his family, which on her part lasted through life. The plot conocted by Gov. Tryon to seize Kingsbridge, blow up the magazines, and capture Gen. Washington, was be progress daring Miss Monrefeld's residence un fer Gen. Futnam's goof, and was materially aided by information imparted her. It was, however, fortunately discovered, the principal conspirators punished, and the country saved. Every tame in the sook is instorical, save two or three, necessary to the plot. Incidents are described as recorded in history, and the work may safely claim the title of a Historical Romance. The Appendix contains some very interesting documents connected with the times sad with C.1. Burn never before published, and now copied from original MSS, the celebrated cipher and key used by cl. Burr in after years.
